This placement may include a prerelease component, day reporting, and home confinement (with or without electronic monitoring, but not to include GPS) at the directions of the CCM and USPO. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility. You shall remain at the facility until discharged by the Court.

CAUSE

Eric Martin's father contacted our office July 26, 2007, requesting assistance in providing his son with housing. As a result, on August 3, 2007, this officer contacted the offender at the Bureau of Prisons (BOP), Sheridan Federal Correctional Institution in Sheridan, Oregon. He indicated that he wanted to either reside with his father, Dean Martin, in Scappoose, Oregon, or reside at the Residential Reentry Center (RCC) in Portland, Oregon. On August 7, 2007, the offender signed the "Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Supervised Release," to reside at a RCC for up to a 180-day placement as a condition of his supervision.

Eric Martin advised this officer that his father is quite ill and wants to repair their relationship. As a result, this officer contacted U.S. Probation in the District of Oregon, to request that they conduct a relocation investigation. The U.S. Probation Office in Portland called this officer on August 16, 2007, indicating that the offender's father could not have his son reside with him because it would effect his housing status. The District of Oregon subsequently agreed to the transfer of supervision/jurisdiction, as well as to this modification to house Mr. Eric Martin at the BOP RCC in Portland. If the Court concurs with this plan, this officer has attached the probation form 22, "Transfer of Jurisdiction" documents, for the Court's consideration. This will allow the offender to spend time with his ailing father. It will also provide him the opportunity to live in a clean and sober environment and seek employment/housing, upon his release from imprisonment on September 5, 2007.

Respectfully submitted,

by

U.S. Probation Officer
